ADA POLICY/PROCEDURES

The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) makes it unlawful to discriminate against individuals with a disability. Title II of the ADA provides that no person with a disability may be excluded because of disability from participating in or denied the benefits of programs, services and activities provided by state and local governments.

The Board of Trustees affirms its commitment to the ADA and will adhere to and post the NOTICE OF RIGHTS UNDER THE AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT AND ILLINOIS HUMAN RIGHTS ACT (Appendix A) in any room where Board meetings and other activities are held and shall be made available to any member of the Board of Trustees or the public upon request.

To enable the Board of Trustees to meet its obligation to individuals with disabilities, the Board of Trustees shall adhere to the following procedures:

1. A Library Trustee shall be appointed as the Board's ADA/IHRA Compliance Coordinator ("coordinator"). The Coordinator will assist the Board in complying with the ADA and the Illinois Human Rights Act (IHRA).
2. The Coordinator and or Library Director may undergo training from time to time as requested or as required by the Board of Trustees.

NOTICE OF RIGHTS UNDER THE AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT AND ILLINOIS HUMAN RIGHTS ACT

In accordance with Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act and Sections 5 and 6 of the Illinois Human Rights Act:

1. The Board of Trustees will not discriminate against individuals with disabilities in its activities.
2. Upon request, the Board of Trustees will provide auxiliary aids and services and other reasonable accommodations *to individuals with disabilities to ensure that such individuals have access to the same Library activities and programs as individuals without disabilities.*
3. The Board of Trustees will not exclude individuals with a disability from participation in the activities due to facility inaccessibility.
4. The Board of Trustees will not retaliate against any person who alleges that any action taken by the Board of Trustees is discriminatory on the basis of a disability or who files an informal or formal complaint or charge alleging discrimination on the basis of disability.

REQUESTING AUXILIARY AIDS, SERVICES OR REASONABLE ACCOMMODATIONS

Any person seeking an auxiliary aid, service, or reasonable accommodation to participate in Board of Trustees' meetings or other Library programs or activities *should contact the Library District's ADA/IHRA coordinator, any Library Trustee or the Library Director. This request may be made orally or in writing. The Library District's coordinator, Carol Crawford, can be contacted at 815-634-2288 or adacoordinator@ccpld.org. All requests will be handled privately between the requestor and the Library District's coordinator or the Library Director and any other individuals that reasonably need to know about the request. The Board of Trustees will not place a surcharge on a person with a disability or group of people with disabilities to cover the costs of making reasonable modifications in policies or providing auxiliary aids and services. If a request is denied, the person making the request will receive a written denial with the reasons for the denial.

GRIEVANCE PROCEDURES***

Any person who believes that the Library has discriminated against that person because of the person's disability may file a written complaint with the Library's ADA Coordinator, or the Library Director. The complaint will provide information about the alleged discrimination, including the date, location, persons involved, and other particulars. The complaint will include the name, address, and telephone number of the person filing the claim. Upon request, the Library will provide alternate means for filing a complaint, such as a personal interview or tape or digital recording, to a person with a disability.

The Library's ADA Coordinator or Library Director will make every effort to work cooperatively with a complainant to resolve the issue forming the basis of the complaint. In the event the response of the Library's ADA Coordinator or Library Director does not satisfactorily resolve the problem, an individual may choose to file an administrative complaint with the following government agencies:

Employees may file an administrative complaint with the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) within 180 days of the alleged discrimination, or may file a lawsuit for injunctive relief and damages.

Members of the public may file an administrative complaint with the U.S. Department of Justice, Civil Rights Division, Disability Rights Section or with the U.S. Department of Education, Office for Civil Rights.

Any or all of these methods may be pursued at the same time.

Individuals are protected from retaliation or coercion when pursuing their rights or responsibilities under the ADA.

APPENDIX C

REQUESTS FOR AUXILIARY AIDS OR SERVICE

1. Any person with a disability who requires the use of an auxiliary aid or service to participate in a Board of Trustees activity, including but not limited to Board of Trustee meetings, may submit a request. The individual requesting the auxiliary aid or service may do so by use of an "ADA Request Form" (Appendix B) or by any other means, including but not limited to oral communications, electronic mail or written request of any kind.
2. Any request by a Trustee or by the public desiring to attend a Board of Trustee meeting should be submitted to the Coordinator. If the individual requesting the auxiliary aid or service submitted the request in another format, the Coordinator must fill out the ADA Request Form. The Coordinator may consult with the Library Director.
3. Any request made by the public for any other Library activity should be submitted to the Library Director. If the individual requesting the auxiliary aid or service submitted the request in another format, the Library Director must fill out the ADA Request Form and consult with the Coordinator. Requests made to any other Trustee will be referred to either the Library Director or the coordinator depending on the requestor. Decision Approving Request: If it is determined from review of the request that the specific auxiliary aid or service is appropriate, the aid or service shall be arranged and the individual submitting the request shall be notified.
4. Decision Denying Request: If it is determined the specific auxiliary aid or service requested is not necessary to provide effective communication or that the specific auxiliary aid or service will pose an undue burden or will fundamentally alter the nature of the goods and services provided, the individual will be consulted to determine whether an alternative auxiliary aid or service can be used. In doing so, primary consideration will be given to the person making the request. If, after consulting with the individual, it is determined that the Board cannot provide the auxiliary aid or service requested because it will pose an undue financial or administrative burden and that an alternative form of auxiliary aid or service that is not a fundamental alteration or undue burden is acceptable to the individual, the Board President will be informed of that determination, in writing, setting out in full the basis for the determination. If the Board President agrees with the determination, a written decision with the basis for denying the request, aid or service shall be provided to the individual in a manner accessible to the individual.

5. Any communication concerning a request shall be considered private and confidential unless disclosure is required under applicable law(s)*.
6. Responses to requests will be finalized as soon as possible but no later than one week after the date of the request.
